

VICTORY CORPS AT WAR

STB Special Troops Battalion

Major Accomplishments :

Provided security for President George W. Bush and Air Force One at Baghdad International Airport, as well as “hasty decontamination” capability at BIAP during the president’s visit

- Executed more than 600 combat patrols, moving tons of supplies and safely escorting more than 6,000 personnel in and around

Baghdad, logging 75,000 accident-free miles. ■ Provided quality assurance for 1.8 million meals served at the Coalition Café’ ■ Conducted three quarterly convoy live-fire training iterations at Besymaya Range ■ Conducted more than 100 small-arms ranges ■ Turned in more than 50 Level III and II vehicles for redistribution ■ Provided personnel services for more than 2,400 servicemembers and postal service to more than 5,000 servicemembers ■ Provided $3 million in upgrades to Camp Victory infrastructure ■ Managed a $200 million property book and fielded new equipment to more than 2,400 servicemembers

4th Expeditionary Air Support Operations Group

The 4th Expeditionary Air Support Operations Group is a U.S. Air Force organization that supports V Corps. As part of the Multi-National Corps - Iraq headquarters during V Corps’ deployment throughout 2006, the 4th EASOG: Provided command, control and oversight for more than 300 battlefield U.S. Air Force members throughout Iraq ■ Provided liaison to MNC-I ground force commanders on all air and space matters ■ Planned, coordinated, integrated and controlled close air support; air interdiction; theater airlift; intelligence, surveillance, and reconnaissance missions and weather impacts into the ground force commander’s area of operations ■ Provided staff weather support to MNC-I and subordinate units for operations, resource protection and force protection ■ From January to December 2006, members of the 4th EASOG provided command and control for more than: 9,710 CAS and electronic warfare missions ■ 19,350 air support requests ■ 1,040 troops-in-contact, with an average aircraft response time of 8.2 minutes ■ 510 shows of force